The specialty plate fee is $15 per year, in addition to the annual registration fee. Your Classic specialty plate may be personalized for an additional fee, make selection on page 2.

NOTE: When the specialty plates are issued, additional fees may be collected to establish a single expiration date for both the specialty plate and the vehicle registration.

`Old' License Plates: If you own license plates that are the same year as the classic vehicle, you have the option of using old plates instead of new Classic specialty plates if the plates pass examination. The old license plates must be examined at your local County Tax Assessor-Collector's office or a VTR Regional Office before submitting this application. The old license plates must be original plates in good, readable condition and have the same color scheme as the original Texas license plates.
